This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INDEX 103-112

Frontispiece, consisting of the armorial ensigns of SIR WILLIAM COKAYNE, Lord Mayor, 1619-20, reproduced from his funeral certificate (1626) in the College of Arms, London, as described on p. 86, note (a), of this work.

INTRODUCTION.

THE present volume contains some account of the LORD MAYORS AND SHERIFFS (a) OF LONDON, during the first quarter of the 17th century (b), 1601 to 1625, shewing, as far as possible (inter alia), their parentage, marriages, children, and armorial bearings, (c) as also the date of their appointment as Aldermen, which office, during this period (indeed from 1552 to 1653), was, without exception, held by them. (d) The style of each Lord Mayor or Sheriff is given as it existed during any time of his tenure of office, e.g., the Lord Mayor of 1616-17 is styled "Sir Robert Leman," though he was not a knight when sworn into that office.

ABBREVIATIONS, etc. Besides those of ordinary occurrence the following are here used for words frequently occurring, viz., "A." for "Alderman"; "M." for "Lord Mayor" and "S." for "Sheriff"; as (a) The account of such Sheriffs as obtained the Mayoralty in the second quarter of the 17th century is left to be dealt with in that period.

(b) The Editor is indebted to the Rev. A. B. Beaven, M.A., for the dates of the appointments to the office of Alderman: to W. Duncombe Pink and W. J. Harvey, F.S.A., for a vast quantity of dates and valuable miscellaneous information respecting many of the persons here mentioned, also, in some instances, to the late J. J. Stocken, who died 31 March 1892, aged 56.

(c) The armorial bearings (when not otherwise specified) are those given in a book marked "D," in the College of Arms, London, containing, with but few exceptions, those of each Lord Mayor and Sheriff of London down to 1656.

(d) In the first portion of the 16th century, down to 1552, there were no less than 19 Sheriffs who never became Aldermen, but, after that date, exactly a century passed before the like case again occurred. There were only 13 such cases in the 17th century, and those all in the latter half thereof, viz.: (1) JAMES PHILLIPPS, S. 1653-54; (2) THOMAS CHANDLER, S. 1657, who d. in his year of office; (3) WILLIAM GOMELDON, S. 1670, who d. in his year of office; (4) SLINGSBY BETHELL, S. 1680-81; (5) SAMUEL SHUTE, S. 1681-82; (6) SAMUEL THOMPSON, S. 1688, who d. in his year of office; (7) SIR JOHN SWEETAPPLE, S. 1694-95; (8) SIR WILLIAM COLE, S. 1694-95; (9) SIR EDWARD WILLS, S. 1695-96; (10) SIR JOHN WOLFE, S. 1696-97; (11) SIR SAMUEL BLEWITT, S. 1696-97; (12) SIR BARTHOLOMEW GRACEDIEU, S. 1697-98, and (13) SIR JAMES COLLETT, or COLLER, S. 1697-98. Tho' the Sheriffs (North and Rich) who finally were established as such in 1682 were Aldermen, yet of the four persons who were candidates for that office in Midsummer 1682, viz., Papillon and Dubois (who were chosen and declared to be elected by the Popular party), and Box and Rich, (who were chosen and declared to be elected by the Court party) two, viz., John Dubois and Ralph Box, were not Aldermen, and never became so. [ex inform. W. Duncombe Pink].

also "b." for "born"; "d." for "died"; "h." for "heir"; "m." for "married"; "s." for "son"; "s.p." for "sine prole"; "s.p.m." for "sine prole masculo"; "s.p.m.s." for "sine prole masculo superstite"; and "s.p.s." for "sine prole superstite". Every person who has the prefix of "Sir" is to be considered as being a "Knight," unless specified to be a "Baronet," and the (now meaningless) terms of "Esquire," "Gent," etc., are omitted. All the wills and administrations are in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury in London, unless stated to be otherwise.

LORD MAYORS AND SHERIFFS OF LONDON

During the First Quarter of the Seventeenth Century,

1601 to 1625.

1600-01 ; 42 and 43 Elizabeth.

AT the commencement of the 17th century (whether reckoned from the then date [o.s.] of 25 March 1601 or from the present [N.S.] date of 1 January, 1600/1, the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of London, (all of whom had been sworn into office in the preceding year, 1600) were as under, viz. :—

S. THOMAS CAMBELL, Ironmonger, who was M. 1609-10 ; see under that date.

S. WILLIAM CRAVEN, Merchant Tailor, elected 14 Feb. 1600/1, vice Thomas Smythe, discharged. Was M. 1610-11 ; see under that date.

SIR WILLIAM RIDER, RITHER, or RYDER, Haberdasher, was b. (as stated by himself in his will) at Muckleston, co. Stafford, and was probably son of "Thom. Ryther of Mucklestone by Catherine [Qy. Ellen] da. of Mr. Poole of com. Staff.". (a) His mother's name

(a) In the absence of a better pedigree of this family, the following [kindly extracted from the Stowe MSS. 624, fo. 155b and 156 (Brit. Mus.) copied by W. J. Harvey], is supplied :—

"THOMAS RYTHER, of Mucklestone, co. Stafford (son of Thomas R.), m. Catherine, da. of Mr. Poole of com. Stafford, and had issue, viz. : [I.] SIR WM. RYDER, Kt, Lord Mayor of London, who by Eliz., da. of Rich. Stone, of Bolne in Norfolk, had issue, FERDINANDO, ob.s.p. ; MARY, d. & coheir, m. Sir Thomas Lake ; SUSAN, m. (1) Sir Thomas Cæsar, (2) Tho. Philpott ; AGNES, m. Sir Daniel Ingleby, of Yorkshire, and d. s.p. [II.] JOHN RYDER (2 son of appears however to have been Ellen, (a) and some doubt exists even as to that of his father, as Strype (who was Vicar of Leyton, co. Essex, 1669-1737) in his edit. (1720) of Stow's London corrects his parentage (from being son of Thomas) to "third son of Edward Rither, of Low Leyton in Essex," as is "shewn in the Heralds' Books". He was S. 1591-92; A. of Bridge-without, 8 July 1591, and of Cornhill, 11 Feb. 1594/5 till his death. M. 1600-01, being Knighted (presumably) during his Mayoralty. He had property at Eythorne & at the Mote near Maidstone, both in co. Kent, as well as at Low Leyton (b), where, though he sold the old manor house in 1610, he held and transmitted to his posterity the manor of Leyton Grange. He m. (possibly as a second (c) wife) before 1572, Elizabeth, da. of Richard STONE, of Holme, co. Norfolk, which lady was bur. 9 May 1611, at St. Christopher le Stocks, London. He d. s.p.m.s. Sep. 1611, at Leyton, where he was buried, though his funeral was not celebrated till 19 Nov. following at St. Olave's, Hart Street, London. (d) Inq. p. mort. (London & Kent) xi. Jac. I. Admon. (pendente lite) 28 Sep., 1611. Will dat. 1 Nov. 1610, pr. 15 Nov. 1611 (94 Wood, and 119 Lawe).

MONUMENT. At Low Leyton, co. Essex [Stow's "London," supplement, p. 114]. "In the upper chancel, an ancient large monument against the north wall, with 2 arches of the doric order of architecture. It hath no inscription, but coats of arms under each arch, impaled Baron [apparently then defaced] and Femme; Sa., a bend arg. charged with 3

Thomas) m. Bridgett, da. of Mr. Parvin, of Shropshire, and had issue, (1) EDWARD RYDER of London, m. Elizabeth, da. of John Rogers, of Salop, & had issue; (2) CAPT. WILLIAM RYDER;* (3) JOHN RYDER, m. Elizabeth, da. of Mr. Genoure, of Essex, & had issue. [III.] EDWARD RYDER (3 son of Thomas) was of Layton, co. Essex, m. Margaret,† da. of Rich. Stone of Bolne, co. Norfolk, & had issue, (1) NATHANIEL; (2) Margaret, m. Robert Wright, of Warwickshire." ‡

(a) "Ellen, mother of Sir William Ryder" [Qy. step-mother?], was bur. 4 Sep., 1606, at Stepney, where also was bur. his son Ferdinando & where his da., Susanna, was married.

(b) This he appears to have inherited from his nephew, Edward Ryder, not long before his death. The estate was sold, 4 Dec. 1599, by Oliver Cromwell (grandson and heir of Sir Ralph Warren, its former proprietor) to "one Edward Ryder" who d. 11 July 1608, seized thereof (Inq. p. m. 31 May, 1609, 7 Jac.), leaving Edward, his s. & h. aged 13, who d. soon afterwards, when it passed to William, brother of Edward (the father), as in the text. This Edward Ryder m. (Lic. London) Margaret Stone, 25 Feb. 1581/2, at St. Christopher le Stocks, London, & had issue of whom 9 children were bap. or bur. there from 28 Nov. 1585 to 17 Feb. 1599/600, the survivors, apparently, being but three, viz., the abovenamed, Edward, bap. there 8 Feb. 1595/6, Margaret, bap. there 2 April 1598, and Nathaniel bap. there 17 Feb. 1599/600.

(c) Certain arms on his monument are supposed to represent those of his two wives. The matter is discussed very fully by Strype (Stow's "London," 1720, Appendix 114), but with no definite conclusion.

(d) His admon. was dated 28 Sep., 1611, and his successor (Rowe) in the ward of Cornhill was appointed 7 Oct., 1611, so that the funeral celebration of 19 Nov. was unusually tardy.

* Probably Sir William Ryder, also A. of London, Knighted 12 March, 1660/1, who d. at Bethnal Green 30 Aug. & was bur. 9 Sep., 1669, at St. Andrew's Undershaft, in the parish register of which are several entries relating to his family. See, also, Le Neve's "Knights".

‡ See p. 3, note "b." as to the issue of this Edward Ryder.

mullets, gu., between 6 cross crossets of the second. The other [apparently the 'Baron's'] coat impaled is defaced. The crest is a griffin's head erased, argent. Under the other arch, another coat impaled. The coat of the Femme [alone] is plain, which is gu. a chevron ermine, between 3 pelicans, or, which is the crest of STONE of Holme in Norfolk. The crest the same as the other. This, I suppose, was his second wife. This is said to be the monument of SIR WILLIAM RITHER or RIDER, Lord Maior of London, anno 1600, and dyed 1611, and, if so, then the coat of the Baron impaled, which is not now discoverable, was [in both instances] azure, 3 crescents, or. The griffin's head erased, is the crest of Rither."

ARMS. Azure, 3 crescents, or, a mullet, arg. [for difference].

"M.S.—To the glorie of God and to the pious memorie of the Honble. SIR THOMAS SMITH, Kt, late Governor of ye East Indian,

Brit. to ye Emperour and Great Duke of Russia and Muscovia, &c. Who having judiciously conscionably and with admirable facility managed many difficult and weighty affairs to ye honour and profit of this nation, rested from his labour the 4th day of Septem. 1625, and his Soul returning to him that gave it, his body was here laid up in ye hope of a blessed resurrection.

"From those large Kingdomes where the sun doth rise,
From that rich newe found world that westward lies,
From Volga to the flood of Amazons,
From under both the Poles, on all the Zones,
From all the famous ryvers, landes and seas,
Betwixt this place and our Antipodes,
He gott intelligence, what might be found,
To give contentment through the massie Round,
But finding earthly things did rather tire
His longing soul, then answer her desire,
To this obscured village he withdrew,
From hence his heavenlie voyage did persue
Here summed up all, and when his gale of breath
Had left becalmed in the port of Death
The soul's frail bark (and safelie landed her
Wher Faith his factor and his harbinger
Made place before) he did no doubte obtaine
That wealth which here on earth we seek in vain."

There is an engraving of him (a) as "late Embassador to ye great Emperour of Russie," etc.

ARMS. Azure, a chevron engrailed, between 3 lions passant guardant, or (b). This coat with 8 others (as quarterings) is shewn in the portrait above named.

Cantiana*" (pp. 82-103), where also (pp. 76-81) is a pedigree of this family of Smith, or Smythe, by J. J. Stocken, for which see also Drake's "Hasted's Kent". See also Reports Hist. MSS. Com. XII., App. 4.

(b) This is the coat as given (with 11 quarterings) in the Visit of Kent, 1619, to "Smythe of Ostenhanger," but it is not given in the Book "D" (see p. 1, note "c."), the arms of the Sheriffs Cambell and Craven filling up the space allowed for the Sheriffs of the year.

(b) She was bur. 24 April, 1651, at St. Andrew's Undershaft.

(c) He is styled "Knight" in the marriage (at that date) of his da., Anna Maria, in the registers of St. Peter le Poor. He, possibly, was the Robert Lee who (with a Thomas Lee) was knighted at Windsor in Aug., 1608 (this date, however, would make him a knight before his elder brother), but, more probably, he was the Robert Leigh (who with John Leigh) was knighted at Theobalds, 22 Jan., 1615/6.

III. JOHN LEE, or SIR JOHN LEE, (a) a minor in 1605. He m., 19 May 1607, at St Dionis, Backchurch, London, Sarah (bap. there 14 June 1590), sister of Sir John WOODWARD, of Weston sub Edge, co. Gloucester, da. of John WOODWARD, by Catherine (who d. 29 Oct. 1613), da. of Thomas BRESSY. They had two sons (1) JOHN LEE and (2) ROBERT LEE, both living in 1613 at the death of their maternal grandmother.

IV. HUGH LEE, of Little Burstead, Essex, and of Twyford, in Willesden, co. Midx. He m., about 1617, Mary, da. of Francis BARNARD, of East Hanningfield, Essex. She survived him. He d. at St Barth. by the Exchange, London, 28 March, & was bur. 11 April 1620. Funeral certif. in Coll. of Arms (I., xv., 30). Admon., April 1620. Inq. post mortem, 20 Jac. They had issue two sons, viz., (1) ROBERT LEE, aged 2½ years, and (2) THOMAS LEE, aged 14 weeks in April 1620.

2. ANNE, 2d & yst. da. She m., 11 June 1605, at St Andrew's, Undershaft, being then aged 18 (Lic. Bp of London), the Hon. Thomas CECIL (bap. 1 Jany 1578), 5th son of Thomas, 1st EARL OF EXETER. They were both living, with issue, in 1619. (b). He was bur. 3 Dec. 1660, at St Martin's, Stamford.

S. SIR THOMAS MIDDLETON, Grocer, who was M. 1613-14; see under that date.

(a) He is called Sir John Lee [Query if not in error?] in the Visit of Warwickshire in 1683, where, however, neither his marriage nor any other particulars are given of him. He may, however (if indeed he was knighted), be the John Leigh who, with [Query his brother?] Robert Leigh, was knighted at Theobalds 22 Jan., 1615/6. (See note (i) above.) Joan, widow of Henry LOTT, of Stepney, merchant, had lic. (Bp. of London) 5 Nov., 1633, to marry SIR JOHN LEE, of the same, aged 45, and a widower. On the other hand, at St. Dionis Backchurch (where his marriage took place, and where his wife was born and her parents buried), "JOHN LEE, Cutler," is buried 10 March, 1619/20; and there is an Inq. post mortem on the said John (7 Car.), showing that he had lands at Woking, co. Surrey, and that JOHN LEE was his son and heir, being aged 8 years, 11 months and 12 days at the death of his father on 2 March, 1619/20—a likely age for the John Lee whom we know to be living in 1613 as eldest son of John Lee and Sarah, his wife, who were m. in 1607.

SIR THOMAS BENNET, Mercer, was b. probably about 1550, being 3d son of THOMAS BENNET, of Clapcot, in Wallingford, Berks, by Anne, da. of (———) MOLINES, of Mackney, Oxon, being younger brother of RICHARD BENNET, the father (1) of THOMAS BENNET, Mercer (A. of London), S. 1613-14, and (2) of SIR JOHN BENNET, of Dawley, in Harlington, co. Midx., the ancestor of the BARONS OSSULSTON, EARLS OF TANKERVILLE, and of the EARL OF ARLINGTON. He was A. of Vintry, 7 Feb. 1593/4; of Lime Street, 8 Feb. 1603/4; and of Bassishaw, 13 Jany 1611, till his death, 16 Feb. 1626/7, having been chosen to, but not having accepted of, the Tower ward in June 1621. He was S. 1594-95, and M. 1603-04. He was Knighted (with 17 (a) other Aldermen) at Whitehall, 26 July 1603. During his Mayoralty the plague continued in London, and is stated (in his Funeral certificate) to have occurred there also during his Shrievalty [1594-95], "as also this last [1625] and greatest visitacion at what tyme he remained the only Father and Protector of all the comfortless inhabitants of that cittie in all their extremitie, to his immortal praise; an example of pietie and fortytude". On the 12 March 1603/4, the King, Queen, and Prince of Wales arrived at the Tower of London, whence they went, on the 15th, in State, thro' the city to Whitehall, thus performing that part of the Coronation ceremony which (owing to the plague) had been omitted the previous July. (b)

He was President of Bridewell & Bethlem Hospital 1606-13, and Gov. of the Irish Society 1615; was admitted, 1 Aug. 1619 (with 8 other citizens) to Gray's Inn. He purchased the estate of Beachampton and Calverton, Bucks, about 1609. He m., about 1580, Mary, sister of John TAYLOR (living in May, 1630, as "John Taylor, the Elder"), da. of Robert TAYLOR, of London, Mercer. She d. at her husband's house in St Olave's Jewry, 2 & was bur. 22 Dec. 1624, (c) in Mercers' Chapel. Funeral certif. in Coll. of Arms (I., xxii., 111). He d. at the same house 16 Feb. & was bur. 22 March 1626/7, in (a) The names of the 17 aldermen (all, it is believed, who had not hitherto received knighthood) who were knighted together at Whitehall, 26 July 1603, were: THOMAS BENNETT [S. 1594-95, M. 1603-04]; THOMAS LOWE [S. 1595-96, M. 1604-05; LEONARD HALLIDAY [S. 1595-96, M. 1605-06]; JOHN WATTS [S. 1596-97, M. 1606-07]; RICHARD GODDARD [S. 1596-97]; HENRY ROWE [S. 1597-98, M. 1607-08]; EDWARD HOLMDEN [S. 1598-99]; ROBERT HAMPSON [S. 1598-99]; HUMPREY WELD [S. 1599-1600, M. 1608-09]; THOMAS CAMBELL [S. 1600-01, M. 1609-10]; WILLIAM CRAVEN [S. 1600-01, M. 1610-11]; HENRY ANDERSON [S. 1601-02]; WILLIAM GLOVER [S. 1601-02]; JAMES PEMBERTON [S. 1602-03, M. 1611-12]; JOHN SWINNERTON [S. 1602-03, M. 1612-13]; WILLIAM ROMNEY [S. 1603-04]; THOMAS MIDDLETON [S. 1603-04, M. 1613-14]; also THOMAS HAYES, who was elected A. some five months later [S. 1604-05, M. 1614-15]; and WILLIAM CRANLEY, who alone, of all the 19, was never A. or S., but who probably held some post in the Corporation.

The Beachampton estate passed, accordingly, to the family of Cecil, 5 Sept. 1732, on the death of Grace Bennet, widow (relict of her cousin John Bennet, of Abington, co. (a) This Robert Taylor is not to be confounded with his contemporary, Robert Taylor, of London, Mercer, whose da. Mary was wife of Sir Thomas Bennet, the M. of this same year (1603-04), and among whose (apparently numerous) issue was a son, John Taylor the Elder, living May 1630, with issue. The arms of these two families are entirely different, those of Lady Bennet being "Erm. on a chief indented sa., 3 escallops," while those of Lady Romney were "Az., on a fess cottised, or, 3 lions ramp, sa". These last-named arms, quartered with those of Romney, were allowed by the College of Arms in the funeral certificate of her son, Daniel Romney, who d. 6 July 1635.

Fifteen children in all, of whom TIMOTHY LOWE, mat. at Oxford, (Ch. Ch.), 22 May, 1612, aged 17, but d. before his Father. Those who survived their Father were 4 sons and 5 daughters, as under, viz.:

I. SIR GABRIEL LOWE, of Newerke in Ozleworth, co. Gloucester, son and heir; admitted to Gray's Inn, 11 Feb. 1594/5. Knighted at Whitehall, 23 March 1617/8; one of the Captains of the trained bands, co. Gloucester, 1626; entered his pedigree at the Heralds' Visitation of that county, 1623. He m., about 1617, Anne, widow of William BENNETT, of Marlborough, da. of Henry HUNGERFORD, of Down Ampney, and of Marston, Wilts. He d., about 1659, at North Nibley, aged 80, leaving (besides 3 daughters) one surviving son, viz., SIR GABRIEL LOWE, b. 1618; Knighted, 3 Aug. 1660, who d. 1704, aged 86, having had 7 sons and 4 daughters. See Visit. of co. Gloucester, 1682-83, and Le Neve's "Knights".

II. THOMAS LOWE, admitted 30 Dec. 1617, to Gray's Inn; aged 30

(a) See Howard's "Mis. Gen. et Her.," 1st Series, vol. ii. pp. 99-114, in (the extremely interesting) "Lambarde Diary," 1504-1798.

(b) Sic in Stow's "London," edit. 1720, where, in the margin, is added, "Too mean a remembrance in my mind for a man so deserving". The date of Lady Lowe's death should, however, be 1625. In Hatton's "New View of London," 1708, the monument is said to be of marble "enricht with trophy work, &c.," and to be at the east end of the church, but the arms therein assigned to it are those which (undoubtedly) were on the adjacent monument of William Cokayne, Skinner, who d. 1599, to which therefore the said description probably applies.

(c) These arms are on his funeral certificate, with 4 other quarterings, viz., Quarterly of 6 (over all a crescent, for difference) 1 and 6; the arms of LOWE, as above. (2) Arg., on a chevron, gu., 3 crosses pattée, or. (3) Arg., 6 pellets, 3, 2, and 1, a mullet, gu. for difference. (4) Gu., an eagle displayed, arg. (5) Gu., 3 crescents, arg., a chief, erm. The whole impaled with those of his wife, viz., Quarterly, 1 and 4, arg., 2 barbel, respecting each other, sa., conjoined with collars and chain pendant, or. [COLSTON, of Corby, co. Lincoln]. 2 and 3, Or., a lion ramp., gu. [MALLORY]. It is to be observed that these arms for Lowe (though agreeing with those in the Visitations, 1623 and 1683, of Gloucestershire) differ entirely from those assigned to this family [FIFEILD, otherwise LOWE] in what purports to be the Visitation of London, 1568, printed by the Harleian Society. This pedigree, however, is not in the record of that Visitation, preserved in the College of Arms.

IV. ROGER JONES, aged 22 in 1605; living Dec. 1609, but d. s.p. before 1634. (a)

He entered and signed his pedigree in the Visitation of Bedfordshire, 1634, having then 4 sons, (1) Roger Jones, aged 15; (2) Richard Jones (b); (3) William Jones, bap. 23 Oct. 1625 (c); bur. 27 July 1635 (c); (4) Thomas Jones, bap. 29 Dec. 1629 (c); and 4 daughters, (1) Elizabeth, bap. 4 May 1623 (c); (2) Christian, bap. 23 Feb. 1627 (c); (3) Margaret, bap. 11 March 1631/2 (c); and (4) Anne, bap. 20 Nov. 1634, to whom may be added (5) Martha, bap. 19 April 1635 (c) and bur. 30 April 1657. (a) The will of a "Roger Jones" was pr. June 1630 (52 Scroope), and, not improbably, is that of this Roger. In the burial reg. of St. Mary Aldermary it is recorded that: "Roger, son of Mr. Roger Jones, died 28 & was bur. 30 June, 1611, on his father, at St. Mary le Bow," which entry, however, is difficult to apply to any member of this widely spread family.

(b) "Richard Jones, Gent.," who was bur. 30 April, 1669, at Litlington, is probably this Richard, who may, by the death of his elder br. Roger, have become heir to his father.

(c) Parish Register of Litlington, Beds.

(d) It is presumed he was alive in 1634, as his death is not (like date of his brother Roger) mentioned. There is, however, the will of a "Hugh Jones," pr. Nov. 1626 (126 Hele), which, possibly, may refer to him.

OLIVER STYLE, Grocer, was elder brother of NICHOLAS STYLE, S. 1607-08, being 3d but 2d surv. son of SIR HUMPHREY STYLE, of Langley in Beckenham, co. Kent, by his first wife, Bridget, da. of Sir Thomas BALDRIE, M. 1523-24. He was b. 1543, and was A. of Bishopsgate, 19 Oct. 1596, but discharged 14 Dec. following. (a) He was S. (vice Jones decd) from July to Nov., 1605, and was a member of the Levant Company. He purchased the estate of Wateringbury, co. Kent.. He m., firstly, (b) Susan, da. of John BULL, Grocer, of London. She d. April, 1601, and was bur. "in the church in Maiden lane, under 3 Crowns". Funeral certif. in Coll. of Arms (I., xvi., 114), but no place of her burial is therein mentioned. He m., secondly (Lic. London, 30 Jany 1604/5), Julian, widow of Thomas CUTLER, Grocer, da. of Richard BARON, alias BARNES, of London. He d. 4 March 1621/2, aged 79, and was bur. at Wateringbury, Kent. Funeral certif. in the Coll. of Arms (I., xxii., 55). Will. dat. 14 Feb. 1619; pr. 6 June 1622 (62 Savile). His widow, by whom he had no issue, was bur. (with her first husband) at St Mary's Aldermanbury, London, 31 Dec. 1627. Will pr. 4 Jany 1627/8 (7 Barrington).

ARMS.(c) Sa. a fess, or, fretty of the field, between 3 fleur del is of the second, within a bordure, also or, [Visit. of Kent, 1619]. Mem. These arms were granted by Wriothesley, 28 March 1529, but with the fess "engrailed".

ISSUE.

By first wife, besides 5 children (John Style, Oliver Style, Mary, Susan, and Margaret) who died before April 1601.

I. SIR THOMAS STYLE, Bart., of Wateringbury afsd., only surv. s. & h., aged 34 in 1621/2, and cr. a Baronet, 21 April 1627. He m. before 1614/5, Elizabeth, da. & h. of Robert FOLKES, of Mountnessing, co. Essex. He d. 18 Oct. 1637, in St. John's Lane, Smithfield. Funeral certificate (I., xxxiv., 90) in the Coll. of Arms. Will pr., 1637. He had issue, three daughters, viz., (1) Elizabeth, b, before 1619, unm. 1637, who m. Sir Edward MONINS, Bart.; (2) Susan, unm. in 1637, who m. Sir John READ, Bart., of Brocket, co. Herts; (3) Anne, unm. in 1637, who m. Sir John BUCK, Bart., of Hamby, co. Lincoln; and (I.) SIR THOMAS STYLE, Bart., b. in St. John's Lane, afsd., Xmas 1624., the only surv. s.

(a) He is called "Alderman of London" in the Visit of Kent, 1619, signed by his elder brother, but he had certainly (even if re-elected as such after 1596) ceased to be one before 1618, not being in Munday's list of Aldermen of that period.

(b) It is probable that the mar. lic. (London), 25 Jan., 1576/7, of "OLIVER STYLE, of St. Mary Woolnoth, and Susanna SPENCER, of St. Stephen Walbrook," refers to his first marriage: in that case the lady (née BULL) must have been a widow. His brother, Nicholas Style, Grocer (the S. of 1607-08), certainly resided in St. Mary's Woolnoth, afsd. 1581-88.

(c) His arms are not given in the book marked "D," see p. 1, note "c." the space allotted for this year being occupied by those of Sheriffs Hayes & Jones.

SIR HENRY ROWE, Mercer, 2d s. of Sir Thomas ROWE, (b) of Higham Hall, in Walthamstow, Essex, and of Hackney, Midx., Cit. & Merchant Taylor (sometime, 1568-69, M. of London), by Mary, da. of Sir John GRESHAM, Mercer (sometime, 1547-48, M. of London), was b. 1544; was A. of Coleman Street, 12 July 1596, but transferred to Cornhill, 7 Oct. 1611, till his death in 1612; S. 1597-98; was Knighted, with 17 (c) other Aldermen, 26 July 1603; M. 1607-08. He m. (Lic. Lond., 12 Dec. 1573), Susanna, da. of Thomas KIGHLEY, (d) of Grays Thurrock, Essex. She was bur. 31 Jany 1609/10. In Strype's continuation of Stow's "London" his monument is thus described: "In the church of Hackney, in a chapel south of the Communion table, the monument of SIR HENRY ROW and his Lady, represented in effigie, kneeling; before him a head-piece and gauntlet; before her a bible.

(a) Parish Register of St Peter, Cornhill, London.

(b) This Sir Thomas Rowe was first cousin to Sir William Rowe, Ironmonger, sometime, 1592-93, M. of London, whose father, Thomas Rowe, of Penshurst, Kent, was br. to Robert Rowe, of Clapham, Beds, Cit. and Merchant Taylor, of London, the father of the said Sir Thomas (M. 1568-69), who was (as stated in the text) the father of Sir Henry Rowe M. 1607-08. There is an elaborate pedigree of Rowe, recorded (I. ix., fo 58, etc.) in the Coll. of Arms; and there are printed pedigrees in Robinson's "Hackney" (vol. ii., p. 11), Nicholl's "Ironmongers' Company," etc.

11 children, of whom 2 sons & 3 daughters survived him, as under:

I. SIR HENRY ROWE (the Younger), of Shacklewell, in Hackney, son & heir; Knighted 10 Sep., 1617, at Woodstock. He m., in or before 1610, Sarah, da. & coheir of Giles DUNCOMBE, of London. She d. 8 & was bur. 26 March 1657. (c) He d. 22 Oct. & was bur. 1 Nov. 1660 (c). Will dat. 20 May & pr. 9 July 1660 (101 Laud). Besides daughters & several sons who died in infancy, he had three sons, viz., [1] HENRY ROWE, b. before Nov. 1612; who m. in May 1633, Katherine, da. & heir of Edward WOODYER, of Cookham, Berks, and d., vitâ patris, 6, being bur. 30 Nov. 1654, (c) having had 12 children, of whom HENRY ROWE, bap. 18 April 1634, succeeded his Grandfather in the estate of Shacklewell in 1660, and d. 15, being bur. 17 Aug. 1670, (c), having m., 5 June 1657, at St Martins-in-the-fields, co. Middx., Warwick, da. of

(a) These four were HENRY, THOMAS, MARY, and SUSAN (all of which names are given above), the last name (Susan) making, it sounded by Echo [Sus-An] the name of the fifth child, i.e., ANN.

(b) It is to be noted that on the monument at Hackney there is a shield of 10 quarterings, of which [1] Gu., a quatrefoil, or, [2] arg., a chevron, azure, between 3 trefoils, etc., are (apparently) both for the coat of ROWE. A full account of these quarterings is in Lysons' "Environs of London," Edit. 1795, vol. ii., p. 464, note 69.

(c) See Parish Registers of Hackney.

Deodatus STAFFERTON, of Eversley, Hants, which WARWICK ROWE d. at St John's, Hackney, a widow, administration of her goods being granted to MARGARET ROWE,(a) her daughter. [2] SIR THOMAS ROWE, of Swarford, Oxon, 2d, but 1st surv. son at his Father's death; aged 63, in 1675, when he entered his pedigree in the Visit. of Oxon. He m. Ann, da. of Anthony LANGTON, of Littleton, co. Worcester, & was bur. 19 Nov. 1685, (b) leaving, besides numerous daughters, three sons, viz., (1) SIR THOMAS ROWE, of Muswell Hill, Midx., bap., 14 June 1640,(b) & bur. 25 Feb. 1695/6,(b) leaving issue;(c) (2) ANTHONY ROWE, of Muswell Hill afsd., Clerk of the Green Cloth, died s.p.m.,(d) & was bur. 9 Sep. 1704,(b) and (3) HENRY ROWE, who d. s.p. & who probably is the "Col. Henry Rowe," bur. 26 Feb. 1706/7.(b) [3] ROBERT ROWE, youngest son, bap. 10 April 1626,(b) who m., in or before 1652, Margaret, by whom he had issue.(e) Both were living May 1660, and probably much later.

II. THOMAS ROWE, bap. 24 Nov. 1583, at Hackney; died unm. at Stode, in Germany, 25 Oct. 1620, and was bur. 25 Jany 1620/1, at Hackney. Funeral certif. (I. xxii., 39) in Coll. of Arms.(f)

(a) This Margaret was b. 12 & bap. 26 March 1673 at Hackney, where her brother Thomas was also bap. 31 Oct. 1664. It seems probable that HENRY ROWE, who represented the family in 1700 (about which time he sold the estate of Shacklewell to the Tyssen family), was another brother, in which case he would answer to the heir male, on whom the Shacklewell estate was strictly entailed by Sir Henry Rowe (the Younger) in his will of 1660. Henry Rowe, the vendor of the estate, is supposed by Lysons ("Environs of London," Edit. 1795, vol. ii., p. 487), to have been "the son of Robert Rowe, Esq., grandson of the last Sir Henry," viz., "Henry, s. of Robert Rowe, Esq., & Margaret," b. 27 Nov., & bap. at Hackney, 14 Dec. 1652. This Robert, however, is called youngest son in the will (1660) of Sir Henry Rowe, while the said child was evidently bur. at Hackney on 19 Sept. 1654, as "Henry, first born son of Robert Rowe, Esq., in the vault". The burials of the name of Rowe from 1700 till 1800 are as under: 1704, Sep. 9, "Anthony Rowe, Esq."; 1704, Dec. 1, "Thomas Row, Esq."; 1706/7, Feb. 26, Coll. Henry Row, in Rowe's vault; 1726, Dec. 24, Mrs. Mary Rowe, widow, from Greenwich, in Rowe's vault; 1728/9, Jany 12, Mary Rowe, widow, and Clapton almswoman; 1731/2, March 23, Mary Rowe, Spinster, from ye Spittle; and 1758, Sep. 6, Thomas Row. It is to be observed that the issue male of Sir Thomas Rowe, of Swarford, Oxon (second son of Sir Henry Rowe, the Younger), was certainly in existence as late as Feb., 1706/7 (when Col. Henry Rowe, his younger son, died unm.), and that such issue would come before that of Robert Rowe (the youngest son of the said Sir Henry), the conjectured father of Henry Rowe the vendor. This Henry Rowe (the vendor) was living in extreme want as late as 1715, having had relief from the parish in 1706, 1708, and 1710.

(b) Parish Register of Hackney.

(c) In his will, dat. 10 March 1693/4, and pr. 17 March 1605/6, he mentions [only] one son, Thomas Rowe (who proved the will), and one da., "Jenny". These two, with their brother, Duncombe Rowe, are also mentioned in the will of their Grandfather, Sir Thomas Rowe, the Elder, dat. 3 Nov. 1685, & pr. 24 Dec. 1686; Thomas & Duncombe being also mentioned in the Visit. of Oxon. Norton & John, sons of Thomas Rowe & Mary, were bap. respectively 10 June 1668, and 23 Aug. 1669, at Hackney.

(d) Mary, the eldest of his three daughters & coheirs was ancestress, by her husband, Trevor (Hill), 1st Viscount Hillsborough, of the Marquesses of Downshire, to whom the vault of the Rowe family, at Hackney, still belongs.

(e) Of his children, one son, Henry (as to whom see note "a." above), & 4 daughters were bap. (14 Dec. 1652, to 18 Aug. 1659) at Hackney.

(f) There is a very curious document from him to his brother, Henry Rowe, and sister, Mrs. Susanna Holliday, among the Rawlinson MSS. at the Bodleian Library (MS. 143). It relates to a charge of misdealing with £6000 and of general ill-living, which caused his father to refuse him his blessing, and is full of reproaches for the unkindness of his said brother and sister [Ex inform. W. J. Harvey].

I. MARY; m., about 1524, Francis NEWBURY, of Wolfines, Berks, and was living in 1612. He d. about 1651, and was bur. at White Waltham. They had issue. Pedigree in the Visit. of Worcestershire, 1682.(a).

He resided in the parish of St Mary Bothaw, London, where (1572-94) his children were baptised. He m. there, 19 Feb. 1570, (e) Elizabeth, da. of Robert GABOTT, of Acton Burnell, Salop, & of London, by Mary, da. of (——) AVIS, of Reading, Berks. He was bur. 14 May 1616, (e) aged 75. Will dat. 8 & pr. 17 April 1616 (36 Cope) (f). His widow, who was b. at Acton Burnell, & who had become sole heir to her brother, Henry Gabott, of Rainham, Essex, Merchant of London (on his death, s.p. 2 Sept. 1610), d. at Woodford, Essex, 11 Nov. 1625, and was bur. there. Will dat. 4 March 1621, pr. 26 Nov. 1625 (118 Clark). Funeral certif. in the Coll. of Arms. (f).

ARMS. Or, a fess, azure, over all a bend, gu.; a mullet, arg., for difference. (g).

(a) In this pedigree their 4th son, James, is said to have died unm. "at Shacklewell". He was bap. 2 Nov. 1607, at Hackney, and bur. there 14 Aug. 1656, as "Mr. James Newberry, from Sir Henry Rowe's, in ye valte".

(b) There is an extensive pedigree of Staverton in Berry's "Hampshire Pedigrees," but no Deodatus Staverton is mentioned thereon, tho' there are two of the (kindred) name of Theodosius.

(c) The genealogical part of this notice is taken from an elaborate pedigree of the family, by J. E. Cussans (author of Cussans' "History of Hertfordshire") in "Misc. Gen. et Her.," New Series, iv., pp. 133-136.

(d) The 1st s. of this William was John Elwes, of Saundby, Notts (bur. there 1599), who was father of the notorious Sir Gervase Elwes, Lieut. of the Tower of London, executed 25 Nov. 1615, for alleged complicity in the murder of Sir Thomas Overbury.

II. WILLIAM CRAVEN, bap. 26 June 1608 (c); suc. to a large fortune, on his father's death, when only 10 years old; matric. at Oxford (Trin. He distinguished himself by his exertions on behalf of the ex-Queen of Bohemia, and contributed large sums to the support of the Royal cause in England. He was cr. 16 March 1664/5, VISCOUNT CRAVEN OF UFFINGTON, co. Berks, and EARL OF CRAVEN, co. (f) Finally, on 11 Dec. 1666, he received a further extension of the said limitation in favour of Sir William Craven, of Combe Abbey, co. father.(a) This Sir William, who d. 1695 (before the Earl), left a son William, who, on the Earl's death in 1697, became 2d Baron Craven of Hampsted Marshall, being ancestor of the succeeding Barons and (since 1801) Earls. The loyal Earl of Craven d. unm. 9 April 1697, in his 89th year, at his house in Drury lane, co. Midx., & was bur. at Binley, co. Warwick. At his death all his honours became extinct save the Barony of Craven, which, under the spec. rem. of 11 Dec. 1666, devolved on his distant cousin as above stated. His will, dat. 4 July 1689, to 7 July 1691, pr. 11 April 1697 (71 Pyne).

III. JOHN CRAVEN, bap. 10 June 1610 (b); M.P. for Tewkesbury 1640-41; cr., 21 March 1642/3, BARON CRAVEN OF RYTON, co. Salop; was Founder of the Craven scholarships at Oxford and Cambridge. He m., 4 Dec. 1634, at Brington, co. Northampton, Elizabeth, da. of William (SPENCER), 2d BARON SPENCER OF WORMLEIGHTON, by Penelope, da. of Henry (WRIOTHESLEY), EARL OF SOUTHAMPTON. IV. THOMAS CRAVEN, bap. 16 March 1616/7.(b) He was living 12 March 1626/7, when he was in spec. rem. to the Barony of Craven, created, at that date, but d. unm. and intestate, aged about 18. Admon. 13 Feb. 1636/7.

(a) In "The Complete Peerage," by "G. E. C." (vol. ii., p. 404), is a tabular pedigree shewing the relationship of the 5 persons who were in special remainder to the peerages so granted, all of whom, excepting only the 5th (who was first inserted in 1666), died s.p. in the grantee's lifetime. This pedigree should, however, be corrected by a very interesting and carefully worked out account of the early part Craven family (by the Rev. W. J. Stavert) in the Yorkshire Arch. Journal (vol. xiii.), which proves that Sir William was brother (not first cousin as is in that Peerage and, generally, elsewhere supposed) to Henry Craven, the great-grandfather of Sir William Craven, of Coombe Abbey, who was father of the 2d Baron Craven.

Both bur. at Croombe, co. Worcester. Their male issue became extinct, 27 Oct. 1719, by the death of the 8th & last Baron Coventry, who, however, was also 4th Earl of Coventry, which latter title, under the spec. rem. in its creation (26 Nov. 1697) devolved on a distant kinsman, ancestor of the present (1896) Earls.

RICHARD PYOTT, Grocer, son of Thomas Pyott, of Cheadle, co. Stafford, was b. there. He was free of the Grocers' company and of the East India Merchants'; A. of Bridge Without, 3 May 1610 till his death in 1619; S. 1610-11. He possessed land at Low Leyton, co. Essex, and at various places co. Stafford. He m., before 1588, (a) Margaret, sister (of the half blood) of Ralph Floyer, of Hints, co. Stafford, da. of Richard (often, in error, called Ralph) FLOYER, or FLYER, of Uttoxeter, by his first wife, (——), da. of (——) CRADOCK, of co. Stafford. He d. 19 (or 21) Jany. and was bur. 15 Feb. 1619/20, at St Laurence Jewry. M.I. Fun. certif. (I., xxii., 15) in Coll. of Arms. Will pr. 31 Jany. 1619/20 (5 Soame). (a) It is probable that the following Lic. (Bp of London), 12 June 1584. refers to them: "Richard Pyott, of Whitechapel, Midx., Taylor, and Margery Roberts, widow, relict of John Roberts, of St Botolph Aldgate, Mariner—to marry at St Botolph Aldgate". It is certain that Pyott was (when he died) free of the Grocers, but he may have been a tailor by trade, or possibly free (also) of the Merchant Taylors; while as to his wife having been previously married, such prior marriages are more frequently than otherwise omitted in the genealogies of that date as given in the Heralds' Visitations or the funeral certificates.

Marble, nor touch, nor alabaster can
Reveale the worth of the long buried man;
For oft we see men's goods, when they are gone,
Doe pious deeds, when they themselves did none.
Mine, while I lived, my goodnesse did expresse,—
'Tis not inscriptions make them more or lesse.
In Christ I hope to rise, among the just;
Man is but grasse, all must to wormes and dust.——

To be possest of that each coveted
Thus did they dialogue, and thus they strove.——

[Death] What Death layes claim to, who can contradict?
[Vertue] Vertue; whose power exceeds all other might.
[Death] Where's Vertue's power, when Death makes all submit?
[Vertue] I gave him life and therefore he is mine.

[Vertue] Because, by Nature all are borne to dye.

[Death] That is as much as I desire to have
His comely shape in my eternal sleepe.
[Vertue] But where's his hon'ble life, renown and fame?
[Death] They are but breath, them I resign to thee.

And whom he dealt with truly bounteously.

The following inscription was in the church of St Mary Staining ("repaired and beautified" 23 Aug. 1630) "in the which, being but newly builded, there remain no monuments worth the noting but one lately erected, a goodly monument in the south wall of the chancel" (d) with this inscription, viz.:—

He departed this life the 11th day of July, anno Domini 1615, being 52 Yeers of age. To whose memory, SARAH, his wife being sole Executrix of his last will and testament, at her own proper cost and charges, caused the monument to be erected."

SIR THOMAS MIDDLETON, (a) Grocer, was one of 16 children, being the 4th (b) of the nine sons of Richard Middleton, of Denbigh (c) sometime Governor of Denbigh Castle (d. 8 Feb. 1575/6, aged 67, by Jane, da. of Hugh DRYHURST, of Denbigh; was b. about 1551 at Denbigh; was apprenticed to Ferdinando Poyntz, Cit. and Grocer of London; admitted to the freedom of the Grocers' company (by apprenticeship) 14 Jany 1582/3, and to the livery, 21 March 1593/4, being sometime Master of that company, to which he and his widow were liberal benefactors. His residence in London was in the parish of St Mary Aldermary; his trade was principally at Antwerp, where he had spent much of his youth. As early as 1595 he purchased the estate of Chirk Castle, co. Denbigh, being M.P. for Merionethshire, 1597 to 1598 and Lord Lieut. of that county in 1599. His city honours came later on. He was Surveyor of the Customs of the port of London and, as such, refused to take the oath, when he was elected by the Court of Aldermen, 24 May 1603, (out of 4 presented (d) by that ward) as A. of Queenhithe. He was accordingly imprisoned in Newgate on 10 June, till, eleven days later, he consented to be sworn; was (subsequently) A. of Coleman Street, 22 March 1613/4, till his death in 1631; S., 1603-04, in which capacity he was Knighted (with 17 (e) other Aldermen) 26 July 1603; M., 1613-14, the "New River" head being opened on the day of his election (29 Sep. 1613) by his brother, the celebrated Sir Hugh Myddleton. The pageant for his Mayoralty (the show being one of unparalleled magnificence) was entitled "THE TRIUMPHS OF TRUTH," and was written by (his namesake)

(a) Free use has been made (1) of the interesting and extensive notes on the wide-spreading "Middleton family of Denbighshire" by W. Duncombe Pink, which appeared in 18 numbers of "The Chester Courant," from 22 July to 25 Nov. 1891, and of which 100 copies were reprinted with additions the same year for private circulation; (2) of extracts from wills and parish registers relating to the same by G. Milner-Gibson-Cullum, in "Mis. Gen. et Her.," 3d s. vol. ii., pp. 66-72; (3) of valuable information from various original sources kindly supplied by W. J. Harvey. There is also an elaborate pedigree of this family (down to circa 1620) in Vincent's "North Wales," in the Coll. of Arms, London.

(b) His younger brother Sir Hugh Middleton (generally, in his case, spelt Myddleton), Goldsmith, was born at Galch Hill, near Denbigh about 1555, and became justly famous by bringing the "New River" into London. He was cr. a Baronet 22 Oct. 1622; d. 7 & was bur. 10 Dec. 1631, at St Matthew's, Friday Street, London, leaving a numerous issue.

(c) Sir Thomas Exmew, 1517-18, and Sir James Yardford, 1519-20, appear to have been the only Mayors previous to 1613, who were Welshmen.

London belov'd hir Knight, hir Citizen,
Lo! Mayor, Sherief, Chief of her Aldermen,
The City's Father, good men's great example,
A prop to virtue, Pillar to the temple,
A faithful patriot, the State's well wisher,
The honor of his house, the Poor's refresher,
His soule hath quite these titles all of them,
And exchanged London for Jerusalem.

Time hath already [1770] impaired this beautiful piece of sculpture, and it is going into decay a great pace; in some places it is with difficulty the Latin inscription can be made out."

Muilman accordingly gives an English translation of the Latin, which, however, it is not thought necessary to reproduce here.

(c) "All Nichols's researches for a copy of this rare pageant were unavailing. That for the next year ["Metropolis coronata, the triumphes of ancient drapery" etc.] by the same author, which he [Nichols] considers as a second part or companion to this one, has been reprinted in his 'Progresses, etc. of King James I.'" (Fairholt's "Lord Mayors' Pageants".)

(d) A reference to "Hayes," at fo. 72 in the index to the volume of Funeral certificates marked "LXIX" in the Coll. of Arms has the words "no certif." added. This seems to indicate that, tho' one was taken, no record thereof exists.

there any recorded pedigree save a very meagre one in the Visit. of Herts alluded to below. He appears to have married at least five wives and to have had at least 20 children, of whom 5 sons & 11 daughters are mentioned as living in his will, dated 1615. He m. firstly (before 1586), Margaret da. of (——) HOWSE, A. of London. She is stated (in the Visit. of Herts, 1634) to be mother of 3 sons (ROBERT, 1st son who enters & signs the pedigree, THOMAS, 2nd son, and BENJAMIN, 3d son) and must apparently have been mother of the 2 daughters (SARAH & REBECCA) both of whom married in 1606, and of the "Infant of Mr Hayes, Merchant" bur. 31 July 1590.(a) The burial, 21 Sep. 1591 (a) of "Mrs Hayes, ux. Mr Thomas Hayes, Merchant" appears to refer to her. The burial 16 Jany 1593/4 (a) of "Elizabeth, ux. Mr Heyes, a Mercer," appears to refer to a second wife, the mother, probably, of Joseph, bap. (2 months later) 25 March 1594.(a) He m. (thirdly?) the Lady who was mother to such of his children as were bap. in or after 1594 to 1609. He m. (fourthly?) 26 Sep. 1609,(a) Mary, da. of Humphrey MILWARD of London, Merchant, (b) which lady was probably the mother of all or most of the children bap. from 1609/10 to 1614, tho' possibly some may be by his next (fifth?) & last wife, Martha, sister of Sir William, and da. of Robert FORTH, both of Butley, co. Suffolk. He d. in his 70th year & was bur. 29 Sep. 1617. Will dat. 7 March 1615/6 to 20 April 1617, pr. 27 Oct. 1617 (91 Weldon). His widow m. 22 Jany 1617/8, at St Alphage, Cripplegate, Sir Richard YOUNG, whose admon. as of St Bride's, London (Query of the Fleet prison in that parish?) 24 Aug. 1652 was to a creditor. The monumental inscription to the Lord Mayor at St Mary's Aldermanbury was as follows:

"Deo trino et uno sacrum. THOMAS HAYES, Eques auratus,(c) secundum Christi adventum sub hoc tumulo expectat. Qui cum ab adolescentia, per magnam Europæ partem, mercaturam excercuisset,

(a) Par. Reg. of St Mary Aldermanbury. It is to be noted that in no case is the mother's name given to the baptisms here alluded to. Besides the entries from this register that are incorporated in the text these also occur; 1552, Sep. 20, Dorothy Hayes, bur.; 1556, Nov. 20, Ursula Hayes, bur.; 1559, Oct. 17, Elizabeth Hayes, bap.; 1561/2, Feb. 16, Rodger Hayes, bap.; 1563, July 12, Elizabeth Hayes, bap.; 1565, Aug. 9, Mary Hayes, bap.; also 1620, Nov. 15, Thomas, s. of Mr Thomas Hayes, Jr, Merchant, bap.; 1611, Oct. 22, Ellinor, da. of Mr Thomas Hayes, Jr, bap.; 1612, April 18, Ellionora, da. of Mr Thomas Hayes, bur.; also 1645, Sep. 30, Mrs Ursula Hayes, bur., sister to Mr Nicholas; also 1660, March 29, A Gentlewoman who was Sir Thomas Hases, [Qy. Hayes'] grandchild, whose maiden name was Wharton, bur.; also, 1688, March 31, Mrs Maria Hayes, Mr Standish's kinswoman, bur.; 1690/1, March 7, Mr Richard Hayes, bur.; 1736, Sep. 28, Mr Thomas Hayes, bur.

(b) Visit. of London, 1634, sub. "Millward". The arms of Millward are "Ermine on a fess gules 3 bezants," which arms, however, are not among those given on the Lord Mayor's monument.

(c) As to the (supposed) distinction between "Eques Auratus" and "Miles," it may be observed that tho' Lord Mayor Hayes & Lord Mayor Middleton were Knighted at the same time and place, yet one of them is called by the first and the other by the second designation, on their respective monuments.

ita industria et judicio claruit, ut unanimi omnium consensu MAJOR hujus civitatis cooptatus fuerit, et cum hoc summum summi Magistratus officium, non solum singulari integritate sed et excellenti veræ Religionis promulgandæ cura et pietate executus fuisset; tandem septuagesimo ætatis anno, Deo bonisque charus, pie et placide in Domino obdormivit, anno Salutis 1617. MARTHA, uxor mæstissima viro suo optimo officiosæ pietatis et memoriæ ergo hoc monumentum P."

ARMS. "Erminois, 3 lions' heads erased, sa." These arms, quarterly with "Arg., a fess embattled, gules, in chief 3 martlets, sa." were on his monument; as were also the arms of two of his wives, viz. (1) "Gu., 2 bends, vaire" and (2) "Vaire, on a chief, or, 3 lions rampant, sa." The first coat, doubtless represents the arms of FORTH (his last wife) which are "Gu., 2 bends, vaire; on a canton, or, a demi greyhound courant, sa."

ISSUE.

By his several wives, he appears to have had the following children, viz.:

I. ROBERT HAYES, of Hertford, who m. before 1617, Katharine, da. of (——) SHERWOOD, Dr of Physic. They both appear to have been living in 1634 (no issue mentioned) when he entered his pedigree (above alluded to) in the Visit. of Herts. The lic. (London) 2 Nov. 1639 of Henry BARRINGTOR, Gent., of Colchester, aged 47, widower, to marry at High Laver, Essex, Catherine HEYES, of Hertford, aged 46, widow, probably refers to her.

II. THOMAS HAYES, living Oct. 1627; mentd in the Visit. of Herts, 1634. To him possibly may refer this Lic. (London) 22 Jany 1615/6, viz. "Thomas HEY, of St Mary Aldermary, Merchant Tailor, Bachelor, to marry at St Bennet Pauls Wharf, Dorothy GRIFFIN, of St Mary Aldermanbury, Spinster, da. of Robert GRIFFIN, decd"; but more probably he m. before that date, and was the "Mr Thomas Hayes, Junior, Merchant," father of 2 children bap. 1610 and 1611. (a)

III. SIR JOSEPH HAYES, bap. 25 March 1594 (a); was of Ubberston, co. Suffolk. Knighted, 10 June 1619, at Greenwich. He m. (——) who was dead before 1627 & was bur. at Ubberston. He d. s.p. Will pr. 5 Oct. 1627 (93 Skinner).

IV. BENJAMIN HAYES, (b) bap. 12 March 1597/8 (a); living Oct. 1627 and mentioned in the Visit. of Herts, 1634.

(a) Par. Reg. of St Mary Aldermanbury. See also p. 69. note "a".

(b) He is placed as the 3d and last son in the Visit. of Herts, 1634. This however could be accounted for by the death of his senior brother Joseph (therein omitted) having occurred before that date. What however can not be so easily accounted for is that all these three are made therein the children of Margaret Howse who apparently died in 1591, while Benjamin (unless the baptism refers to a second child of that name) was not bap. till 8 years later.

V. NATHANIEL HAYES, bap. 28 Sep. 1600 (a); living Oct. 1627; not mentioned in the Visit. of Herts, 1634, but living Sep. 1648.

VI. (——) HAYES, a son bap. 2 Feb. 1611/2 (a); probably d. young.

1. SARAH, b. about 1587; m. 15 Dec. 1606 (a) (Lic. Lond. she then aged 19) Thomas JONES (eldest son of Sir Roger JONES, S. 1604-05) then of St. James' Garlickhithe, London, Dyer, aged 28 & unm., but afterwards in 1634 of Lambeth, Surrey, when he entered his ped. in the Visit. of London. She d. v.p., before 1617 leaving issue. See p. 23.

2. REBECCA (the first child of that name) m. 12 Dec. 1606 (b) Robert BARLEE. She appears to have d. v.p. before 1617 leaving her husband and two sons then living.

3. MARTHA (the first child of that name) m. (as his first wife) William ESSINGTON, of London, Merchant, by whom she had one child, Thomas, living 1634. She was dead in 1615. He m. secondly before 1615 Hester (aged 12 in 1605) 3d da. of Sir Roger JONES (S. 1604-05) by whom he had 4 children in 1634. (Visit. of London, 1634).

4. (——) m. Edmund TRAVERS, mentioned by Sir Thomas Hayes, as his son-in-law (b) in his will dated 1615.

5. ABIGAIL bap. 3 Sep. 1595 (a); m. before 1617 Peter EGERTON 4th son of Sir John EGERTON of Oulton). He was bap. 19 Nov. 1592. Both were living 1617.

6. ANN (or HANNAH) bap. 22 Aug. 1596, (a) living unm. in 1617. John OSBORNE, Gent., of Lambeth, Surrey, aged 36, Widower, had lic. (London) 24 Nov. 1630 to marry at St Clement's Danes, ANNE HAYES, of London, aged 37, Spinster.

7. An "unbaptized da. of Thomas Hayes, Merchant" was bur. 12 Aug. 1579. (a)

8. MARGARET, bap. 12 July 1602 (a); living unm. 1617.

9. ELIZABETH, bap. 24 May 1604 (a); living unm. 1615 m. 20 Nov. 1618 (a) John IRELAND, of the Hutt and Hale, co. Lanc. and had Sir Gilbert Ireland, s. & h., aged 41 in 1665 (Visit. of Lancashire) & other issue.

10. KATHERINE, bap. 23 March 1605/6 (a); living unm. 1617. She m. (as second wife) Samuel CRISPE, of Bread street, Merchant of London & was, with him, killed, 3 April 1648, by the fall of the floor of the room above them. Her arms were in Fulham church, Midx. His admon. 5 May 1648, to his br. Sir Nicholas Crispe, Bart.

11. SUSAN, bap. 28 Oct. 1607 (a); living unm. 1617.

(a) Par. Reg. of St Mary Aldermanbury. See also p. 69, note "a".

(b) This, of course, is not conclusive evidence that he married a da. of testator; but it must be noted that William Essington, who undoubtedly did marry one of such daughters, is spoken of by testator in precisely the same way.

EPITAPH.

Honour, Integrity, Compassion,
Those three fill'd up the lifetime of this Man;
Of Honour—the grave Prætorship he bare
Which he discharg'd with conscience, truth, and care.
He possess'd earth, as he might heaven possesse
Wise to doe right, but never to oppresse.
His Charity was better felt than knowne,
For, when he gave, there was no trumpet blown.
What more can be compriz'd in one man's fame,
To crown a soul, and leave a living name?

"Against the west wall of this north isle, a fair monument with 3 effigies half way in stone of a man and two women, viz. WILLIAM HALIDAY, Alderman of the city, dyed 1623, and Susanna, his wife after married to Robert, EARL of WARWICK, dyed 1645, and Anne his eldest dau. married to Sir Henry MILDMAY, Kn^{t}, dyed 1656. 1. ANNE, 1st da. & co-heir, m. about 1620, Sir Henry MILDMAY, Master of the Jewel House, by whom she had 5 children living in 1634

(a) The entry in the par. reg. of the burial of "Sir Henry Mildmay's daughter" is on 26 Nov. 1643.

(b) This description of the Lady appears to be wrong. The Dame Margaret, who erected the monument, was in all probability Margaret da. of William Halliday and widow of Sir Edward H., K.B., which lady did not die till 1672. This Sir Edward, whose mother was Lucy, da. & heir of Sir Walter Hungerford of Farleigh, was succeeded by his brother of the half blood (ex parte paterna) Anthony Hungerford of Black Bourton, whose son & heir, Sir Edward (b. 1632; d. s.p.m. 1711) sold Farleigh Castle in 1686. (c) Jackson's "History of Farleigh Hungerford".

(d) In the Visit. of London for 1634 there is a "Robert Johnson, Grocer," then living, who was nephew to "Robert Johnson, A." This latter is, in all probability, this Sheriff of 1617-18; but as the arms there given (which, however, were respited for proof), viz., "Sa., on a bend, arg., 3 pheons," are totally different from those ascribed to the said Sheriff, the entry may not refer to him, but to some other Alderman of his name, tho' hardly to the one who d. as far back as about 1515; see note (g) below.

(e) See p. 20, note "c," sub. "Lowe," M. 1604-05.

(f) Robert Johnson of London, Merchant Taylor, had lic. (London) 12 Feb. 1587/8 to marry Sarah da. of William Cowper, Clothworker; and another Robert Johnson, Clothworker, had a like lic. 12 May 1599, but this would be too late for the marriage of this Sheriff.

(g) Robert Johnson, Goldsmith, A. of Cheap, 1507-15, who was bur. at St Matthew's Friday Street, about 1515, is often confused with this alderman (his namesake), tho' more than a century his senior.

His father's monument (probably erected by and intended for himself also) was "a very goodly" one, "but without any inscription or epitaph in the north ile of the quire" [Stow's "London"]. SIR WILLIAM COKAYNE, Skinner, b. about 1561, was second of the seven sons of William COKAYNE,(h) of Baddesley Ensor, co. Warwick,

(a) This Nicholas is stated by Le Neve (see note "a" above) to have died without issue. He d. before April 1677. See will of Sir Nathaniel Herne.

(b) This John was dead before April 1677, leaving a da. "wife of (——) Whitlock, of Virginia," then living.

(f) This Sarah was living April 1677, as "wife of Joseph Hall, merehant," having two daughters, Sarah Hall & Susannah Hall.

(g) Ex-inform. W. J. Harvey abovenamed.

(h) This William was brother of Thomas Cokayne (of Baddesley Ensor abovenamed), both being sons of Roger Cokayne, of Sturston in Ashbourne, co. Derby, descended (thro' William his youngest son) from Sir John Cokayne, of Ashbourne, and Isabel, his wife, da. of Sir Hugh Shirley. A pedigree was entered and signed in the Visit. of London of 1634 by William Cokayne, the Lord Mayor's first cousin, who (being also a Citizen & Skinner of London & also of Broad Street ward) is often confused with him. He was a son of the Thomas Cokayne abovementioned, and had 5 children, viz. 3 daughters (Dame Mary Drury, Dame Elizabeth Rich, and Ellen, wife of Francis Vernon), and 2 sons William & Thomas, who both died s.p., the latter (the survivor) dying 11 March 1711/12, in his 96th [!] year at Sonning, Berks.

Citizen & Skinner of London (d. 18 Nov. 1599) by his first wife Elizabeth, da. of Roger MEDCALFE, of Wensleydale, co. York, and of Alspade and Meriden, co. Warwick, also Citizen and Skinner of London. In 1612, when the plantation of Ulster was commenced, he was the first person who was Governor of the colonists there, and under his direction the city of Londonderry was established. He was Knighted, 8 June 1616, at Cokayne House (d) in Broad street, London, (exactly opposite the church of St Peter le Poor) by James I., whom he had entertained at dinner. M. 1619-20, during which period he received in great state, 26 March 1620, the King, Prince of Wales, &c., who visited St. Paul's Cathedral with a view of raising money to complete the spire. The title of his "Pageant" (e) was "The Triumphs of Love and Antiquity," written by Middleton, by whom also was written "The first Entertainment," commencing "On Monday & Tuesday in Easter weeke 1620," held "at the house of the Rt Worthy Sir William Cokaine, the L. (a) Roger, son of Thomas Medcalfe, of Coventry, co. Warwick, deceased, was apprenticed for 10 years from Midsummer 1514 to Thomas Mower, Citizen and Skinner, becoming, subsequently, free of that company. He is described in his son-in-law's funeral certificate (1599) as "of Winsedall" [i.e., of Wensleydale, co. York], and his descent from that house is confirmed by the arms allowed to him therein, viz., Quarterly 1 and 4, Arg. 3, calves passant sable (for Medcalfe) 2 & 3, Sable, a chevron, argent, between 3 quater foils of the last, pierced, of the field; over all, a crescent, surmounted by a crescent, for difference. This last coat is that of Raughton, the heiress of which house married Bryan Metcalfe, of Beare Park, co. York, son of James Metcalfe of Wensleydale, who fought (1415) at Agincourt. The will of this Roger, as of Alspade, co. Warwick, Gent," dat. 5 Oct. 1557, directing his burial to be at Meriden in that county, was pr. 30 Dec. 1558. He left two children, viz., Elizabeth, as in the text, and John Medcalfe, admitted to the freedom of the Skinners' company 7 March 1552/3 being Warden thereof, 1563.

(b) His apprenticeship and freedom appear to have been at a late age, but W. J. Harvey (see p. 13, note "c") assures the Editor that such age is not very unusual. The ages of himself and his six brothers are given in the inquisitio post mortem of their father, and his own age, as given therein, agrees with that stated on his monument.

(c) At the same date was admitted (his wife's brother) "John Morris, of London, Gent".

(d) The site, formerly that of the Excise office and subsequently of the old South Sea House (which ran back as far as the site of the New South Sea House in Threadneedle Street) is now (1897) occupied by the City Club. The old house (the crest of Cokayne being sculptured thereon) was in existence till late in the 18th century.

He purchased large estates in several counties, more particularly (in 1619) that of Elmesthorpe, co. Leicester, and (also in 1619) that of Rushton, co. Northampton, which last for more than 200 years was the residence of his descendants. (b) Rushton Hall and the surrounding estate of 3000 acres (in a ring fence) was sold in 1828, by the daughters of the Hon. William Cockayne, nieces & co-heirs of Borlase, 6th Viscount Cullen.

(c) See Nicholl's "Ironmongers Company," where there is a pedigree of this family of Morris and an engraving of the Seal of Mary, Countess of Dover (reproduced in the "Her. and Gen.," vol. v., p. 482) in which, under an Earl's coronet, the arms of Carey are impaled with those of Morris, Vert, a buck trippant, or "which is a coat borne by Ralph Morris, of Helmingham, at the Visit. of Suffolk in 1612".

(d) Engraved in Dugdale's "St. Pauls". Tho', of course, destroyed by the great fire of London, Payne Fisher (see note "a" above) states that he ("a bust in gown") and his wife were among "the figures remaining of the old monuments, in tolerable preservation" in St. Faith's Vaults, 19 May 1783. It is believed that his figure down to the knees still (1897) remains, but that that of his wife has perished. They are both depicted in a drawing (made about 1820) which belonged to the Hon. Mrs Cockayne-Medlycott. The monument with the numerous coats of arms thereon is well described in Wadmore's "Skinners Company," 1876.

He was a man in the Trade of Marchaundizing very expert, and industrious, and in that faculty inferior to none in the age wherein he lived, both for ampleness of Trade and sufficiency of judgement as it manifestly appeareth by the severall courses of large Traffique he managed into sundry Territories and Kingdomes, besides the Adventures he had with some Societies ordered by a joynt government, as with the Marchaunts of East India and Muscovia. He was also chosen by the Citie of London one of the foure Colonells thereof, in the tyme of King James, amongst which he had the prime place. In each case one of the two coats of arms therein given consists of 7 quarterings (4 and 3) viz.: (1) Arg., 3 cocks, gu., armed, crested and jelloped, sa., for COKAYNE. The arms of MORRIS, vert., a buck trippant, or (see p. 85, note "c") impaled with those of Cokayne, (and the said quarterings) are depicted in the other coat in the said Funeral Certificate.

(a) There is at Christ's Hospital a good portrait of him, with "a venerable beard, his eyes and mouth expressive of decision and firmness of purpose" [Wadmore's "History of the Skinners," 1876]. There is also a whole length portrait of him in his robes of office as Lord Mayor at Thorpe Malsor Hall, co. Northampton, the seat of his descendant the Rev. Cecil Henry Maunsell.

(b) It has been well said by Payne Fisher (see p. 85, note "a") of Sir William Cokayne "that his spreading boughs & fair branches have given both shade & shelter to some of the goodliest families of England". His only surv. son Charles, was, within 16 years of his death, raised to the peerage as a Viscount. No less than 4 Earls (Nottingham, Holdernesse, Lindsey, and Dover) and 1 Viscount (Fanshawe) were among his sons in law, while, of the other two daughters, one, the wife of Sir Hatton Fermor, was ancestress of the Earls of Pomfret, and the other was wife of the Hon. James Sheffield, son of the 1st Earl of Mulgrave, and, for many years, heir presumptive to that dignity. Among his grandchildren (confining oneself to the children of but one da., Martha), were (1) Robert, 3d Earl of Lindsey, father of the 1st Duke of Ancaster (so cr. 1715), from whom the subsequent Dukes of Ancaster (1723-1809) the Lords Willoughby de Eresby (Earls of Ancaster since 1892) the Marquesses of Cholmondeley, the Barons (since 1895 Earls of) Carrington, the Earl of Portmore (d. 1819), the Earls of Buckinghamshire, Baron Stuart de Rothesay (d. 1845) and the Earls of Westmorland. (2) The Hon. Peregrine Bertie, ancestor of the Earls of Northington (1764-86), the Barons Henley, the Earls of Poulett & the Earls of Morley. (3) The Hon. Charles Bertie, whose great grandson succeeded in 1809 as 9th Earl of Lindsey, being ancestor of the succeeding Earls. (4) Elizabeth, Viscountess Campden, ancestress since 1690 of the Earls of Gainsborough. (5) Bridget, Duchess of Leeds, ancestress of the succeeding Dukes of Leeds, &c.

Tipperary (a) in the peerage of Ireland, with a spec. rem. of that dignity, failing heirs male of his body, to the 4 younger sons (Peregrine, Richard, Vere, and Charles Bertie) of his sister Martha, by "the Lord Willoughby of Erisby". He, during the civil war, raised a troop of horse for the King, was a "Compounder" (as a "delinquent") for £7,515, and is said to have lost £50,000 in the royal cause. He m. 24 June 1627, at St Giles' in the fields, Mary, 1st da. & coheir of Henry (O'BRIEN), 5th EARL OF THOMOND in Ireland, by Mary, da. of William (BRERETON), 1st Baron Brereton of Leighlin in Ireland. He d. a few days after the Restoration & was bur. 19 June 1661 at St Peter's, Rushton afsd. His widow m., as his first wife, George BLOUNT, Sodington, co. Worcester, by whom (who d. May 1702) she had no issue. She was bur. 31 May 1686 with her first husband. His male issue became extinct on the death of Borlase, the 6th Viscount, who d. unm. 11 Aug. 1810, in his 70th year, shortly after which date the Viscountcy was officially recognised (in the creation of an Irish Peer) as extinct, notwithstanding the extended limitation thereof in virtue of which the Earls of Lindsey would, since 1810, have inherited it.

She m. secondly, as his first wife, (b) 18 April 1627, (a) Montagu (BERTIE), 2d EARL OF LINDSEY, LORD WILLOUGHBY DE ERESBY, K.G., Lord Great Chamberlain of England, who, however, did not suc. to the peerage till 23 Oct. 1642, about a year after her death, which occurred in July 1641. He d. 25 July 1666 & was bur. at Edenham, being, by a second wife, father of James, the 1st EARL OF ABINGDON. By Martha, his first wife, he had 8 children, of whom Charles the 5th & youngest son is ancestor of the Earls of Lindsey since 1809, while the Dukes of Ancaster (extinct 1809) the Earls of Ancaster (Lords Willoughby de Eresby) and many others descend from the eldest son. (c)

5. ELIZABETH, bap. 2 April 1609. (a) She m. 24 June 1629, (a) as his second wife, Thomas (FANSHAWE), VISCOUNT FANSHAWE OF DROMORE in Ireland, so cr. 5 Sep. 1661, Remembrancer of the Exchequer. He d. 26 & was bur. 30 March 1665, at Ware, co. Hertford, aged about 68. She was bur. there 27 Feb. 1667/8. Her will pr. 14 May 1668. (d) They had a numerous family, of which Thomas, the oldest son suc. as 2d Viscount, while Charles, a younger son, became eventually, in Oct. 1687, the 4th Viscount, that dignity becoming extinct on his death, unm., 28 March 1710.

6. ABIGAIL, bap. 26 Aug. 1610. (a) She m. 2 Dec. 1630 (a), John (CAREY), 2d EARL OF DOVER, at that date styled VISCOUNT ROCHFORD, whose father, some six months before, had m. her mother. He (who suc. as Earl of Dover in April 1666) d. s.p.m. (e) 26 May & was bur. 1 June 1677 in Westm. (b) "My Lord Willoughby, son to the Earl of Lindsay, was married to the Countess of Holderness, one of the late Alderman Cokaigne's daughters, who brought him £10,000 in money, £900 a year, £1000 a year pension out of the exchequer, and a house richly furnished." [Letter, 27 April 1627, to Rev. J. Mead.]

(c) See p. 87, note "b" (circa finem), as to other her descendants.

(d) In Archdall's "Lodge's Peerage of Ireland," 1789 (vol. iv. p. 331), she is erroneously given two husbands neither of whom she married, viz. (1) "Sir Richard Fanshaw, Knt. and Bart.," and (2) "Sir Thomas Rich of Sunning, Berks, cr. a Baronet 20 March 1660". As to the last (erroneous) statement, it is followed in most of the subsequent accounts. Sir Thomas Rich did indeed marry an Elizabeth Cokayne (bap. 11 Oct. 1618 at St. Peter's le Poor, afsd.), but she was a da. of William Cokayne (mentioned on p. 83, note "k") who was first cousin to Sir William, the Lord Mayor. She, who was ancestress of the succeeding Baronets (a dignity extinct 6 April 1803) died, a widow, her will being dated May and proved July 1675 in the C.P.C.

(e) From Lady Mary Heveningham (wife of William H., the Regicide) their only da. & heir, descend (thro' the families of Heveningham, Newton, Coke, Roberts, afterwards Coke) the EARLS OF LEICESTER OF HOLKHAM, so cr. 1837.

5. CLARA, living 1607; not mentioned in 1634.

6. SARAH, who was the 4th da. in 1634 & 1636. She m. 31 July 1627, at Hackney (Lic. London) William BRIGGS, of Rickmansworth, Herts.; she aged 20 & he 25, of Gray's Inn, Bachelor. They had issue.

7. ABIGAIL, who was the 5th da. and unm. in 1632. She m., in or shortly after that year, Robert BUSBY, of Addington, Bucks, Barrister, who d. 15 Sep. 1652, aged 52.. She d. 28 Sep. 1698, aged 92, leaving issue. See Croke's "Croke Family".

(a) Mar. lic. (London) 14 Feb. 1644/5 for "William Prestley, Esq.," of Essenden, Herts, aged 50, widower, to marry Frances Herris, aged 30, widow.

ROWLAND HEYLIN, Ironmonger, whose parentage is unknown,(a) was of a family settled at Pentre Heylin, co. Montgomery; apprenticed 26 April 1576; free 4 May 1584; Assistant 1612 and Master of the Ironmongers' Company 1614 and 1625; was of St. Alban's, Wood street, London. A. of Cripplegate 20 April 1624. S. 1624-25. He was a good Churchman, causing the Bible to be printed in the Welsh language; regaining the impropriation of the Vicarage of St Alkmund, Shrewsbury, to the Church; leaving books to the library of that town; giving £100 for the yearly preaching of a sermon on the Gunpowder Plot, &c. He m. Alice (b. at Reading), sister of Richard ALDWORTH, who was living 1641. He d. s.p. Will dat. 5 April 1629, pr. 15 Feb. 1631/2 (23 Audley). His wife was a benefactress to the Ironmongers' Company. Her will dat. 24 March 1641/2, pr. 8 May 1642 (by Ralph Bovey, son of her sister Mrs. Ursula Bovey) (71 Campbell).

ARMS. Sa, 3 nags' heads erased, argent.

(a) He mentions in his will his kinsmen near Shrewsbury, and several relatives of his name, viz., the children of his cousin Richard Heylin, those of his cousin John Heylin, of Alderton, also his cousin John Heylin, of Gray's Inn; but the chief legatees (after his wife) were Thomas Nicholls, son of his sister Anne Nichols, and Rowland Hunt, son of his sister Eleanor Hunt. The former appears to have entered into an "unkind suit of law" against the widow. The well-known Peter Heylin, D.D. (d. 1662 æt. 62), was son of Henry Heylin, said to be a nephew (but who more probably was one of the cousin's children) of this Rowland.
